

COUNSELLING FOR CARERS

A Symposium for Counsellors and Psychologists

The unique complexities of counselling people in a caring role requires a multi-faceted, humanistic approach. In this symposium, professionals will learn how counselling can be tailored to meet their needs.

Carers Victoria has been delivering counselling for carers for over 15 years. This symposium brings together Carers Victoria's collective learnings on this topic and explores key themes for professionals working with carers.

Featuring keynote speaker Jeff Young (Director, Bouverie Centre) and counsellors/psychologists from the National Counselling for Carers program.
