

FOR SERVICE PROVIDERS ONLY

Engaging with Family Carers Online Workshop

by Carers Victoria

Working together with your client's family

Establishing good 'partner-in-care' practice

Good 'partner-in-care' relationships between workers and caring families are important when supporting your client. This workshop will identify the challenges you may face as a worker and that families may face as you work with them.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This workshop is for service providers only.

TOPICS INCLUDE

- The experience of organisations and support workers of engaging with caring families;
- The experience of families in working with support agencies and workers;
- Managing challenges to support your client in the best way possible.
