SUPPORT SERVICES FOR CARERS

A FREE online workshop for carers by Carers Victoria

Who supports the carers?

Caring can be complex and challenging. One in eight people at any time provide unpaid care or support to someone in need. Carers Victoria is here to assist.

This workshop provides information about the support services available to family carers and the service organisations which provide those services. It also includes information on the new Carer Gateway.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This workshop is open to people wanting to know more about the support services available for carers.

TOPICS INCLUDE

- The challenges facing carers
- Support services available to carers through the Carer Gateway and the Victorian Support for Carers Program
- Information on which organisations provide support across Victoria
- The role of Carers Victoria.
