

Join our VMCH Dementia-friendly Social Support Group

Do you care for someone living with dementia or memory loss?

If you care for a loved one with dementia/memory loss, come and join us for a relaxed afternoon to meet others in your area and spend some enjoyable time together.

Afternoon tea is provided and you can choose to join in with some social croquet (no experience needed) or just watch and enjoy.

These events are for both the person living with dementia and their loved one.
